ONE COMMUNITY BOOK CLUB: RESILIENCE

Wednesday, October 26 at 6 p.m.

Registration begins Monday, October 10 at 10 a.m.

This fall, our library is participating in One Community, a county-wide effort to get our communities reading together. The theme this year is resilience, and that's what the featured books are all about. Libraries and organizations are teaming up to bring you book and movie discussions, inspired crafts, storytimes, contests, and more as we share ways to create a culture of resilience around our community. Join us for a discussion of the book Born a Crime: Stories From a South African Childhood by Trevor Noah. Come early or stay late to make a personalized monogrammed bookmark on the Cricut!

"We spend so much time being afraid of failure, afraid of rejection. But regret is the thing we should fear most. Failure is an answer. Rejection is an answer. Regret is an eternal question you will never have the answer to." -Trevor Noah

"The City of North Canton approached us earlier this year and mentioned that they were hearing from older adults in the community who really desired a dedicated space for fellowship and enrichment," Library Director Andrea Legg said. "We were thrilled to work with the City to carve out the space and time for this to happen. We're really excited to start this series and to hear more from our community as far as what they'd like to see it develop into in the future."

Samantha Kuikahi, the Library's Outreach Associate who is facilitating and overseeing the development of the programs, agreed. "I hope to offer a range of activities and presentations to older adults in our community that will engage mind, body, and spirit, helping us to stay connected, healthy, and age well. My goal for the programs is to allow us to immerse ourselves in creativity, mindfulness, exercise, nutritious and local foods, and continuous learning."

Registration is not required.

Teachers

Teacher library cards allow up to 100 children's books to be checked out at any time for six weeks with one two-week renewal available. Teacher privileges apply only to children's books for classroom use. Other library materials including audiobooks, music CDs, kits, electronic devices, and DVDs must be checked out using a general patron library card. As with all library cards, overdue items will be charged a late fee and full price will be charged for lost or damaged items. We strive to assist North Canton Public Schools' educators and homeschoolers. Visit the Children's Department for information on the many special services we offer.

Golden Buckeye Card Holders

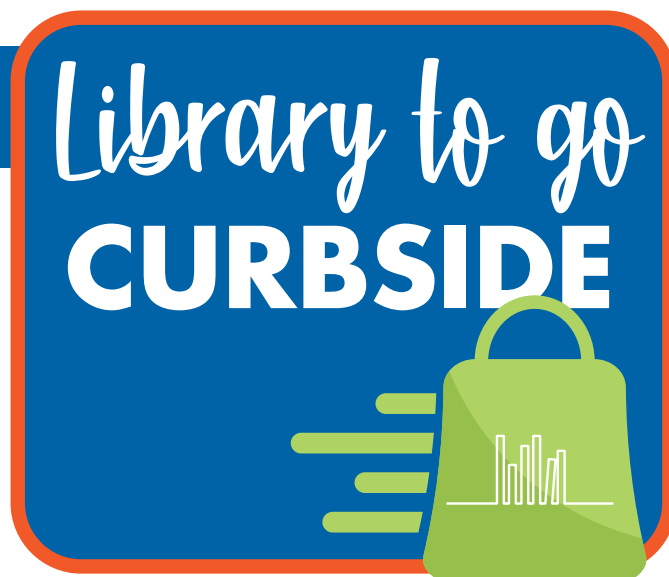

Patrons of any age who have a Golden Buckeye Card qualify for fine free status. Simply show us your card one time, and we will change the status of your account to be fine free. Golden Buckeye Card holders continue to receive notices about late items and will still be charged replacement costs if materials are lost or damaged.

Children 17 and Under

Children are eligible for their own library cards. Parents must be present with children visiting the Library and must agree to comply with library rules and regulations, pay all fines and fees, and make good any loss or damage incurred to materials borrowed on their child's card.
