

for immediate release

MEDIA CONTACT:

Christina Weyrick
Community Relations Manager
(330) 499-4712 x331
cweyrick@northcantonlibrary.org

NORTH CANTON PUBLIC LIBRARY ANNOUNCES NEW DIRECTOR

NORTH CANTON, Ohio (March 3, 2020) – The Board of Trustees for the North Canton Public Library is excited to announce that Andrea Legg has been hired to fill the role of Library Director. Legg will begin her employment on April 13 and work with Sandra Lang, the current director, until Lang’s retirement on April 30.

In a statement, Megan Pellegrino, President of the Library Board said “The North Canton Public Library Board of Trustees conducted a national search for a new director and was thrilled to find the perfect candidate in nearby Tuscarawas County. We are confident that Andrea Legg has the skills and experience to lead the Library into a bright future while maintaining the trust and respect that the organization has already established in our community.

The Board would also like to extend our thanks to Sandra Lang for her years of dedicated service as the Director of the North Canton Public Library. We wish her a very happy retirement.”

Most recently, Legg served as Assistant Director of the Tuscarawas County Public Library, a system with four branch locations. She received her Bachelor of Arts in English from Malone University and her Master’s Degree in Library and Information Science from Kent State University. With more than a decade of professional library experience, Legg was named Librarian of the Year by the Ohio Library Council in 2018. She serves on the boards of Changing Perspectives, Inc. and the Tuscarawas County Board of Developmental Disabilities.

Legg is a Stark County native and a graduate of Canton Central Catholic High School. Currently, she resides in Dover with husband and son.

About the North Canton Public Library

Founded in 1926, the North Canton Public Library has a vision to inspire the community to seek lifelong learning and enjoyment. The library strives to fulfill this vision by providing diverse, quality programs, services and resources for everyone, while supporting relationships that empower individuals to pursue enlightenment and enhance knowledge.

The library is located at 185 N. Main Street in North Canton. For more information visit ncantonlibrary.org, or call (330) 499-4712.

###